

eucen 2015 AUTUMN SEMINAR

Brussels, Mon 16-Tue 17 November 2015

<http://autumn2015seminar.eucen.eu>

University continuing education, a strategic investment

INNOVATIONS AND PRACTICES IN EVALUATION

Keynote speaker

Dr Edith Favoreu

University of Geneva, Switzerland

Dr Edith Favoreu is head of Learning Department and Deputy Director at CERAH (Center for Education and Research in Humanitarian Action- Geneva).

She leads the MAS in "Humanitarian Action" since 2010. She also coordinates the CAS "Designing Strategies and Projects for Humanitarian Action" and the "Humanitarian Distance Learning" Program.

Edith Favoreu holds degrees in Public Law (1999), International Law (2000) and Political Science (2000), a Professional Master in Humanitarian Action (2001) and a Research Master in Protection and Humanitarian Security (2005). She holds a PhD in comparative public law focusing on ethno cultural diversity in the context of a Nation.

Since 2005, she has delivered courses and seminars at the Institute of International Humanitarian Studies at Aix en Provence University (part of the NOHA network). After working for Bioforce (French Training Institute) as Project Manager, she hold the position of Training Manager at Eirene-Switzerland which provides training to Swiss aid development workers.

She has worked in development aid in fragile context and post-conflict areas for over fifteen years in the field and at headquarters of national and international NGOs as well as for UNESCO. She has established several local capacity-strengthening initiatives particularly through the creation of and support to national and local NGOs.

